Presenting Sponsor

Champions for a Safe Community awarded $132,000 in 2016 to seventeen East Central Indiana community nonprofits.

"The scope of work and programs supported include such things as providing programming, services, and activities that support the prevention of violence as well as the protection and care of victims of violence; educational workshops on community peace building, race relations and preventing school violence," said Jeff Howe, President of the Northeast Region of Old National Bank.

Champions for a Safe Community is also funded by 100 Men Who Cook and Just Desserts!
